YOUR NFU COUNTRYSIDE Information and Advice

The NFU is extremely proud of the detailed advice, action and assistance that it provides to its members. Our free dedicated member helpline and countryside guides help get the most from life in the countryside.

Countryside member helpline

A team of over 20 specialist advisers are ready to take your call and provide you with information. Whether you need personal legal advice on transport, environment, tax, health and safety or consumer law, we can help you.

Countryside guides

There are a whole host of rules and regulations which can affect you if you live or work in the countryside. We have created a range of 50 straightforward technical and legal guides, covering topics from pig management to horse and pony management, listed buildings and renewable energy.
